

#THEDRIVEWAYPROJECT

I would like to photograph what home isolation looks like for you. I'll be driving around town photographing you from my car window (paparazzi style!) of how you're making the most of staying home!

Home isolation can feel like a lonely place, lets show others in our community that we're in this together and help bring a smile to the face of someone who may be struggling.

Drag the couch out the front, get dressed up if you like! Ride around with the kids on scooters, draw with chalk - have a great time!

The images will be shared on social media and uploaded online for you to download. There is no charge.
